Reflection on today's Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

“The stone which the builders reject is in fact the cornerstone of the whole structure.”

The parable in today's Gospel underlines Jesus' unequivocal condemnation of those who exercise authority in their own interests: those who wield power in order to control others, never to take care of others. He condemns those who use their learning and their standing in society to exact obedience from others, who brook no challenges or contradictions from anyone. Such were the scribes, the elders and the Pharisees who saw themselves as the appointed custodians of God's ways when, in fact, their obsession with worldly power and status meant that their lives were lived far from God's truth.

When Jesus asked them which stewards they thought would be punished by the owner of the vineyard, without hesitation they agreed that the stewards who beat and stoned and killed those sent by the owner to inquire about the vintage, including his only son, deserved the most extreme punishment. It took them some time to realise that they had condemned themselves out of their own mouths, and when the realisation did dawn on them, they would have killed Jesus if they had not feared his standing with the crowd.

It has been acknowledged that this parable is a beautiful summary of the history of Israel, taken from the prophet Isaiah, but it resonates effortlessly with today's world. The truth will never reside with those of us who don't want to be stewards or tenants but want instead to be owners. The truth will never reside in those of us who refuse to stop living out of our own selfish dreams instead of living out of God's dream for us which alone leads to gloriously abundant life.

Who was it who said that the man who lives for himself alone is apt to be corrupted by the company he keeps!

Face Coverings: Following consultations with public health authorities, the leaders of the four main churches in Ireland decided to recommend and encourage the use of face coverings at Masses and other liturgical celebrations.

We encourage all adults and children aged 14 and over to please wear a face covering at Masses and other liturgical celebrations ie Funerals, Baptisms, First Communion, Weddings (unless they are exempt from wearing face coverings, even in situations which would otherwise be mandatory). Medical advice is that wearing face coverings is first and foremost about protecting others.

Please continue to observe social distancing, to use the hand sanitiser on entering and leaving the Cathedral.

Day for Life – Sunday, 4th October 2020

Day for Life is celebrated annually by the Catholic Church in Ireland, Scotland, England and Wales. It is a day dedicated to raising awareness of the meaning and value of human life at every stage and in every condition.

This year's Day for Life in Ireland is celebrated today and will focus on the theme: 'Choose Life'.

Choose Life: Prayer for the Child in the Womb

Lord Jesus, you are the source and lover of life.
Reawaken in us respect for every human life.

Help us to see in each child the marvellous
work of our Creator.
Open our hearts to welcome every child as a unique and wonderful gift.

Guide the work of doctors, nurses and midwives.
May the life of a mother and her baby in the womb be equally cherished and respected.

Help those who make our laws to uphold the uniqueness and sacredness of every human life,
from the first moment of conception to natural death.

Give us wisdom and generosity to build a society that cares for all.

Together with Mary, your Mother,
in whose womb you took on our human nature,
Help us to choose life in every decision we take.

We ask this in the joyful hope of eternal life with you, and in the communion of the Blessed Trinity.

Amen.

Our Lady of Knock, pray for us.
All the Saints of Ireland, pray for us.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena continues after 7.30 pm Mass on Thursday, 8th October. Do you have some “knots” in your life? Knots of discord in your family, the knots of deep hurts in relationships, the absence of peace and joy in the home. Sometimes our lives may seem one big knot due to circumstances beyond our control when we face health problems. This Novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady; that Christ gave His Mother to be our Mother, the Untier of Knots. We pray and entrust our specific “knots” to Her loving hands, learning how to let go of that which binds us. Please join us via webcam at www.churchservices.tv, www.watchmenmedia.tv or the parish website at www.steugenescathedral.com.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena – Meditation of the Day for Thursday, 8th October

Mary, Beloved Mother, channel of all grace, I return to You today my heart, recognising that I am a sinner in need of your help. Many times I lose the graces you grant me because of my sins of egoism, pride, resentment and lack of generosity and humility.

I turn to You today, Mary, Untier of knots, for You to ask your Son Jesus to grant me a pure, humble and trusting heart. I will live today practicing these virtues and offering you this as a sign of my love for You. I entrust into Your hands this knot .....which keeps me from reflecting the glory of God.

Mary, Untier of Knots, pray for me.
