A short reflection on today's Gospel: Mark 6:7-13

'Take nothing with you'

Jesus has been rejected by his people in Nazareth on the grounds of his 'ordinariness' which, they argue, is in direct conflict with the wisdom and great learning he exhibits, rendering it suspicious in their eyes. Astonished and shocked by their ignorance and prejudice, Jesus leaves Nazareth and goes into the neighbouring villages of Galilee to continue his ministry of repentance and healing.

He sends out the Twelve to do his work, arming them with the authority to preach in his name, to heal and to banish unclean spirits: ordinary people, fishermen mainly, doing extraordinary things! Can the message be any clearer that it is the power of God, not worldly power, which renders us extraordinary! It is that we are all His sons and daughters, equal in His eyes, which enables us to do extraordinary things in His name.

Jesus sends the Twelve out in pairs, an important act in its emphasis on communities, however tiny, rather than a single voice. He instructs them clearly and succinctly before they set off on how to conduct themselves while fulfilling the mission he has entrusted to them. They are to take nothing with them: they must depend totally on the hospitality of others for food and shelter, and if they are rejected by a village they are to shake the dust of that village off their shoes as they leave, thus making it clear that those who have refused God's message have nobody but themselves to blame.

The Twelve go out armed with nothing but the truth which, Jesus knows, is all they need.

The twelve go out and by the manner of their going out extol the virtues of hospitality, community, sharing, and acceptance of the excluded.

Blessed Carlos Acutis

Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian Catholic teenager, was beatified in Assisi, Italy on 10th October 2020. He documented Eucharistic miracles around the world and catalogued them all onto a website that he created himself in the months before his death from leukaemia. Carlo was known for his cheerfulness, his care for others, his computer skills and his deep devotion to the Eucharist, saying it was his "highway to heaven". There is a display in the Cathedral dedicated to Blessed Carlo Acutis and prayer cards which you are welcome to take.

Pope Francis has established a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will take place for the first time on Sunday, 25th July 2021 on the theme 'I am with you always' (Mt 28:20).

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence:
even in times of loneliness,
You are my hope and my confidence,
You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth!

I thank You for having given me a family
and for having blessed me with a long life.
I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty,
for the dreams that have already come true in my life
and for those that are still ahead of me.
I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness
to which You call me.

Increase, O Lord, my faith,
make me a channel of your peace,
teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me,
to never stop dreaming
and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth.
Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world,
that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed,
the poor consoled and wars ended.

Sustain me in weakness
and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me,
in the certainty that you are with me every day,
even until the end of the age.
Amen.
