St Eugene's Cathedral - Advent Programme:

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday: Morning Prayer of the Church will be prayed at 7.45 am.

Monday to Friday: Mass will be celebrated at 5.15 pm.

The 5.15 pm Mass each Thursday during Advent will be a Rorate Mass. The Rorate Mass has a long tradition in the Church. The name comes from the opening words of the Entrance Antiphon, Rorate caeli desuper, Latin for "Drop down dew, ye heavens". This is a Votive Mass in honour of Our Lady for the season of Advent, celebrated by candlelight early in the morning or in the evening. Our Lady shows herself in a special way as our leader through Advent to Christmas. The Mass begins in darkness – candles will be provided. The Cathedral lights will be switched on when the Glory is sung.

Late Opening on Mondays continues on 13th and 20th December: To celebrate the sacrament of Confession and spend some quiet time in the presence of the Eucharist from 8.30 pm to 10.00 pm.

Family Prayer Service for your home during Advent has been created by the Diocese, in conjunction with the Northern Pastoral Network, for family prayer at home during the season of Advent as we prepare for the coming of Jesus at Christmas.

The word 'Advent' means 'coming' or 'arrival'. The season of Advent marks the time we prepare for the birth of Jesus at Christmas.

Family Prayer Service for your home during Advent

In this booklet you will find a Family Prayer Service and activity suggestions for the Sundays of Advent as we journey towards Christmas and the arrival of the Son of God to a stable in Bethlehem.

The booklet can be viewed on a computer, tablet or mobile. It can also be printed at home.

It is our sincere hope that this resource will be a spiritual support to everyone during the season of Advent.

A short reflection on today's Gospel: Luke 3:10-18

Someone is coming who will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Today's Gospel witnesses an encounter between John the Baptist and a group of people clearly drawn to him by his powerful presence and equally powerful eloquence. Here was a man on fire with faith in God, unrelenting in his denunciation of evil, and passionate in his urgings towards repentance. Here was a man who sheltered no discrepancy between what he preached and what he practised. He has chosen to preach, not in the cities, not in the centres of worldly power, but in the desert wilderness. He wore shambolic clothes and dined on what he could forage from nature. When he was asked by various individuals what they ought to do to in order to gain eternal life, his answers could be interpreted as an early example of practical Christianity: share what you have with those who have nothing; work with honesty and integrity; be content with your lot. The whole emphasis of John's teaching is to move from outer observance to inner sanctity, always motivated by love of others, by compassion and truth. Perhaps it is no wonder that the crowds asked him if he were the Messiah, and it is no wonder, given John's powerful and humble allegiance to God, that his denial is instant. He knows exactly who he is and what he needs to do in order to fulfil God's plan for him. His task is to prepare the way for the One who is to come, the one who will baptise, not with water, but with the Holy Spirit and with fire, the one who will bring salvation.

We live in a culture based on greed for power, for wealth, for titles, for the very things which will never satisfy the heart.

What should we do to gain eternal life?

Someone once wrote that Advent is not for the arrogant and powerful. We and our egos have to stoop low if we wish to enter the stall which contains the Christ Child. Perhaps we should start stooping in humility now!

Starting conversations in our parishes

"We have to look at where the Lord is leading us in order for us to be effective in making new disciples for the Lord"

Pope Francis is inviting the faithful all over the world to come with him “on a journey” as a “Synodal Church”. The word ‘synod’ means “walking together” and “indicates a way of being together as Church and ‘discerning’ how best to spread the Gospel amidst the challenges of life in the 21st century.”

This Synodal Process entitled, For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission coincides with the start of the two-year Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland which will lead, in time, to a National Synodal Assembly in Ireland.

We pray that the next two years will be a time of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a consultative conversation. This will allow all people - both within the Church and in society at large, to share their insights into the Catholic Church in Ireland – past, present and future – so that we can prepare for a National Synodal Assembly in the coming years.

Bishop Donal explains this is the start of our Synodal Journey: "We have set ourselves in Ireland a five year period, to look together in a prayerful context where God is leading His Church"

In this video, <https://youtu.be/Lhky65OFfEQ>, Bishop Donal McKeown reminds us of the purpose of the Church and outlines the prayerful consultation process of Synodality, of walking together, of listening, of being led by the Holy Spirit to understand where the Lord is leading us.
