A short reflection on today's Gospel. Mark 10:46-52

Go your faith has saved you.

In today's Gospel, Bartimaeus, the blind beggar, throws off his cloak and runs, full of faith, to Jesus to be healed. His cloak is an emblem of his helplessness, of his suffering and misery; it is something to hide behind, something which offers some kind of shelter and warmth. By throwing it off, Bartimaeus demonstrates his complete faith that Jesus will heal him, and indeed it is his faith which Jesus affirms has restored his sight.

'Go; your faith has saved you.'

The cure of Bartimaeus begs the question: 'What will Bartimaeus do with his new-found sight?' Will he forever follow in the footsteps of Jesus, clear-eyed and trusting, living out his life according to the truth revealed to him?

And the cure of Bartimaeus begs the question of the rest of us: What do we do with the sight gifted to us by God? The word 'respect' means 'seeing again'; in other words, seeing more deeply than first sight. Jesus always saw deeply into people. He saw beyond the superficial, the readily available, into the truth which resided in their hearts. He saw the beautiful truth which lived in the heart of the woman who washed his feet with her tears and dried them with her hair, while the Pharisee only saw her doubtful status as a woman of ill repute.

Jesus, may we see your beautiful face in the most demoralised of human beings?

Jesus, may we see beyond the evil which men do to the brokenness, the love gone sick, of the evildoer?

Jesus, may we always 'look again'. May we seek to see beyond the superficial, the readily available, to the deeper meanings in the lives of others, just as you taught us to do.

Today is World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday is Pope Francis' annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue.

The theme for World Mission Sunday 2021 is We Cannot Remain Silent: 'For we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard' (Acts 4:20).

A series of presentations on Mission Today - what mission means in today's society - will be available online, by Zoom, on the Tuesday and Thursday evenings of the month of October. Each presentation is free and will consist of a short talk, discussion on the topic and a chance to ask questions. For more information on the individual presentations, the speakers and to receive the Zoom links, visit derrydiocese.org/mission-month.

Starting conversations in our parishes

"We have to look at where the Lord is leading us in order for us to be effective in making new disciples for the Lord"

The Catholic Church throughout the world and in Ireland is beginning a series of conversations about what God wants of his people at this time. These conversations are often referred to as a Synodal Process. "Synodal" comes from a Greek word which means "walking together".

Sunday, 17th October marked the opening of this Synodal Process entitled, For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission. This Synodal Process coincides with the start of the two-year Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland which will lead, in time, to a National Synodal Assembly in Ireland.

We pray that the next two years will be a time of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a consultative conversation. This will allow all people - both within the Church and in society at large, to share their insights into the Catholic Church in Ireland – past, present and future – so that we can prepare for a National Synodal Assembly in the coming years.

Bishop Donal explains this is the start of our Synodal Journey

"We have set ourselves in Ireland a five year period, to look together in a prayerful context where God is leading His Church"

In this video, <https://youtu.be/Lhky65OFFeQ>, Bishop Donal McKeown reminds us of the purpose of the Church and outlines the prayerful consultation process of Synodality, of walking together, of listening, of being led by the Holy Spirit to understand where the Lord is leading us.

What happens next?

In the coming weeks and months information will be shared here and throughout each parish in the Diocese on planned events and discussions. Watch your Parish Bulletins, your parish website and social media channels.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena will continue after 7.30 pm Mass each Thursday until 25th November. Do you have some “knots” in your life? Knots of discord in your family, the knots of deep hurts in relationships, the absence of peace and joy in the home. Sometimes our lives may seem one big knot due to circumstances beyond our control when we face health problems. This Novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady; that Christ gave His Mother to be our Mother, the Untier of Knots. We pray and entrust our specific “knots” to Her loving hands, learning how to let go of that which binds us.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena – Meditation for Thursday, 28th October

Mother, Untier of Knots, generous and compassionate, I come to You today to once again entrust this knot in my life to you and to ask the divine wisdom to undo, under the light of the Holy Spirit, this clutter of problems.

No one ever saw you angry; your words were so charged with sweetness that the Holy Spirit was manifested on your lips. Take away from me the bitterness, anger and hatred which this knot has caused me. Give me, O dearest Mother, some of the sweetness and wisdom that is all silently reflected in your heart. And just as you were present at Pentecost, ask Jesus to send me a new presence of the Holy Spirit at this moment in my life. Please ask the Holy Spirit to come to me!

Mary, Untier of Knots, pray for me.

Rebrand of Pope's charity as 'Missio Ireland' ahead of World Mission Sunday

The Irish branch of the Pontifical Mission Societies, formerly known as World Missions Ireland, has been rebranded as 'Missio Ireland' at a media launch which took place in the Veritas headquarters in Dublin on 18 October. The rebranding of the Pope's official charity for overseas mission took place ahead of the annual collection on World Mission Sunday (24 October) which helps to fund the work of missionaries abroad.

Chairman of Missio Ireland, Archbishop Kieran O'Reilly SMA, said, "World Mission Sunday, and the mission month of October, calls on every person, in every parish, in every corner of the world to stand together to share what they can, no matter how little. It also challenges the traditional idea that mission work is solely done by overseas missionaries. Mission is at the heart of every Christian's baptismal call. It invites each one of us to consider the part we can play in changing our own lives and the lives of others." See www.missio.ie for more.

The 'Healthy Planet, Healthy People' petition, which has been endorsed by the Vatican, calls for a joined up, just response to the Covid 19, climate and biodiversity crises. The petition can be accessed online at www.healthyplanetandpeople.org.
