A short reflection on today's Gospel: John 10: 11-18

The good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.

Today's powerful Gospel clearly and unequivocally instructs us in the way of truth: it is God's love, and only God's love which assures our salvation. Jesus is God's beloved, and, in turn, Jesus is our good shepherd who knows us by name and loves us to the extent of laying down his life for us. The line of love and salvation is clear: God to Jesus to us. The contrast made between the good shepherd and the hired man leads us unerringly to the heart of the truth: the good shepherd will lay down his life for his sheep because he knows them intimately and loves them unconditionally; the hired man, the false shepherd, looks after his own interests and cares little about the welfare of the sheep he is hired to protect.

Jesus, teach us to discern the false shepherds in our midst, and to cling to the pastoral ministry which imitates your mission of healing love, inclusivity and true compassion.

The Annual Little Way Novena in honour of St Thérèse of Lisieux
8th to 16th May 2021

Theme: Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be.

The Little Way Novena will take place here in St Eugene's Cathedral from Saturday, 8th May until Sunday, 16th May. This will be an opportunity to pray for a special intention and to ask St Thérèse to intercede for us. It is a time when many people find great joy and healing. St Thérèse is a very powerful intercessor with God.

"I know of no other means to reach perfection than by love. To love: how perfectly our hearts are made for this! Sometimes I look for another word to use, but, in this land of exile, no other word so well expresses the vibrations of our soul. Hence we must keep to that one word: love."
