A short reflection on today's Gospel Luke 24:46-53

'As he blessed them he was carried up to heaven'

Today's Gospel witnesses Jesus bidding a tender farewell to his disciples. Normally separation brings sorrow, especially when people are bound together in love. The disciples have seen their beloved Master tortured and humiliated. They have witnessed him go to his cruel, agonizing death like a lamb to the slaughter, suffering in silence, forgiving his tormenters. They have witnessed with awe the glory and wonder of his resurrection. He tells them now that the forgiveness of sins which his suffering, death and resurrection has brought about 'would be preached from all the nations' beginning from Jerusalem.

Yes, separation normally brings sorrow in its wake, but the gentle separation effected by Jesus brings comfort, consolation, and joy. Jesus is leaving to open the gates of heaven, but he is not abandoning his loved ones: he promises to send them the Holy Spirit to enlighten and strengthen them, so that, their souls on fire with passionate ardour, they will go out and bear witness to the truth.

Taking them to Bethany, a place of friendship, Jesus blesses them, withdraws from them, and is carried up to heaven.

'They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy.'

Jesus, set our tepid hearts on fire with ardour for your truth. May we know that we are on this earth for others, that we are evangelisers who, with your help, can fearlessly spread the Good News. Let us never be intimidated by the world's cold, cynical heart; instead, let us respond always to the need and yearning for the truth of God's love which often lies beneath that cold cynicism.

Today is World Communications Day: Theme: Listening with the ear of the heart. In his message Pope Francis says, 'The most important task in pastoral activity is the 'apostolate of the ear' – to listen before speaking, as the Apostle James exhorts, 'Let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak' (1:19). Freely giving some of our own time to listen to people is the first act of charity.

Blessed Carlos Acutis

Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian Catholic teenager, was beatified in Assisi, Italy on 10th October 2020. He documented Eucharistic miracles around the world and catalogued them all onto a website that he created himself in the months before his death from leukaemia. Carlo was known for his cheerfulness, his care for others, his computer skills and his deep devotion to the Eucharist, saying it was his “highway to heaven”. There is a display in the Cathedral dedicated to Blessed Carlo Acutis and prayer cards which you are welcome to take.
