

A short Gospel reflection Matthew 3:13-17

In today's Gospel, we witness a moment of profound humility and revelation: Jesus approaches John the Baptist to be baptised in the Jordan. John resists, recognising his unworthiness—"I need to be baptised by you." Yet Jesus insists, not because He is in need of repentance, but to "fulfil all righteousness." In this simple act, Jesus fully enters into the human condition, standing in solidarity with sinners and revealing the depth of God's saving love.

The baptism of Jesus marks the beginning of His public ministry, but it also unveils who He truly is. As He rises from the water, the heavens open, the Spirit descends like a dove, and the Father's voice proclaims, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." Here, the mystery of the Trinity is made visible: the Son in the waters, the Spirit descending, and the Father speaking from heaven. God reveals Himself not in power or spectacle, but in humility, obedience, and love.

For us as baptised Christians, this Gospel invites reflection on our own baptism. Just as Jesus enters the waters to sanctify them, so too we enter into Christ's life, death, and resurrection. In baptism, we become beloved sons and daughters of the Father, temples of the Holy Spirit, and members of the Body of Christ. This identity is not something we earn; it is a gift freely given.

Yet baptism is not only a moment in the past—it is a call for the present. Jesus' obedience to the Father sets the pattern for our lives. To live our baptism means to choose humility over pride, service over self-interest, and trust over fear. It means allowing the Spirit to shape us daily, even when the path leads through the ordinary waters of sacrifice and faithfulness.

As we contemplate Jesus standing in the Jordan, may we hear anew the Father's words spoken over us: You are my beloved. Strengthened by this truth, may we live as witnesses to God's mercy, carrying Christ into the world with courage and love.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: The Baptism of Jesus reminds us of our own baptism and that each one of us is called to be holy and to fulfil our vocation in life. We pray that the men called to serve the diocese as priests will know that, like Jesus, they are beloved sons of the Father, and that they will find fulfilment in spreading the Good News of God's love for everyone.

The 7.30pm Mass at St Columb's Church, Waterside, Derry, on Tuesday 13th January, will be followed by a Holy Hour for Vocations, from 8-9pm. Anyone who cannot attend in person can join in the Prayers and Devotions via the parish webcam.

Catholic Schools Week 2026 begins on Sunday 18th January and continues until Saturday 24th January. The theme "Catholic Schools – Normal Lives, Called to Holiness," highlights the call to holiness found in everyday life, drawing inspiration from the teachings of Pope Francis and the witness of Saint Carlo Acutis. Through daily reflections, it explores how prayer, love, family, service, and joy shape ordinary lives into paths of holiness.

To launch Catholic Schools Week in our diocese, the Eucharist will be celebrated by Bishop Donal McKeown in Saint Eugene's Cathedral, Derry on Thursday 15th January at 10.00am and everyone is welcome to attend.
