A short reflection on today's Gospel: John 17:11-19

So that they might be one, as we are one.

In today's Gospel Jesus demonstrably proves his love for us: his prayer to his Father on our behalf is a beautiful and powerful manifestation of the tenderness and protectiveness of that love. He prays for us to be one with each other as he and his Father are one: his wish is for there to be no divisions between us as we do our best to carry out the mission he has entrusted to us, the mission which places love at the centre of everything.

He prays that his Father will protect us from Satan and the snares of this world, that we will live contrary to the world as we negotiate our way through it, just as he has done.

The bond of love between Jesus and his Father is clear in today's Gospel, and it is also clear that Jesus feels this same bond of love for us, his followers. Jesus has been sent by his Father to save us, and he, in turn, is sending us out to proclaim the Good News that the only way to holiness and joy is the way of love.

Jesus, help us to see your Father in ourselves and in others. May we always know that we are watched over tenderly by your Father who will protect us from evil as we strive to live with love, in love, and through love.

Jesus, thank you for the beautiful, tender and protective love for us to which today's Gospel bears witness.

Linking with Filled With Joy, pupil workbook and Disciples of Jesus, parent booklet (which many schools and parishes already have and which are still available from the Diocesan Catechetical Centre) the programme will consist of four sessions, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th May from 10.00 am to 12.00 noon on the catecheticalcentre.org/webcam/. Each day the sessions will include catechesis on different aspects of the Sacrament of Confirmation, prayer, creative activities and music.

These resources are available online at catecheticalcentre.org/category/celebrating-mary-in-the-month-of-may-2021/
