

2023 has been another blessed year in Saint Eugene's Parish. We are truly blessed with so many people who give their time so generously and to have our retired priests living among us who serve their parish so faithfully. As we begin 2024, we ask God's blessing and thank Him for the gift of 2023.

"May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace."

(Book of Numbers 6: 24-26)

A short reflection on today's Gospel Luke 2:22-40

Today's Gospel witnesses the rewards of a steadfast faith and lives lived in willing service to God. It tells the story of the upright Simeon and Anna who patiently await the birth of the promised child who would be the 'light to enlighten the pagans, and the glory of God's people Israel.'

Now Simeon had been promised by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord. He had been prompted by that same Holy Spirit to come to the Temple that day, and when he laid eyes on the child, Jesus, who was being presented by his parents in accordance with Jewish law, he took him into his arms, blessed God and exclaimed: 'Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised, because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see.' The waiting was over. The Son of God was in the world, never to leave. Simeon can rest in peace and Anna can proclaim the Good News to all who listen. God's infinite love for us has borne beautiful fruit in the shape of a tiny vulnerable child, a child who will one day willingly sacrifice his life for our salvation.

Jesus, may we always be aware of your presence in our lives, within us and around us, closer to us than our own breath, loving us and willing us never to despair, never to lose faith, willing us to be as steadfast and as upright in our lives as the good Simeon and Anna of today's Gospel.

Today, on this Feast of the Holy Family we pray for foster carers, and that more people will consider fostering as an option, to generously opening their hearts and their homes to provide care, support and love to children in need. Foster carers are ordinary people who make an extraordinary difference to the lives of those children and young people who, for a variety of reasons, are unable to live with their birth families. There are many challenges and reasons leading to children and young people requiring foster care: sometimes material poverty and hardship; sometimes parental struggles due to relationship difficulties or addictions.

Unfortunately, there are times when there are no available spaces for foster care placements. The HSC NI Foster Team is urgently seeking more people to think seriously about fostering. On this Feast of the Holy Family, do you think you can make that extraordinary difference to a child's life? If you think you can help or if you have any questions at all in relation to fostering, please contact the Team: Tel 0800 0720 137 or email info@fostering.hscni.net
